CAMP COACHES

Rossview Head Coach: Becky Padgett

Coach Becky Padgett wrapped up her fourth season with the Lady Hawks, guiding the team to a 22-6 school record, District 10AAA Runner's Up finish, and a John Overton Christmas Tournament Championship. Coach Padgett was also named 2011 District 10AAA Coach of the Year. As a former player, Coach Padgett has experienced four trips to the Tennessee High School State Tournament, winning the Class A TSSAA State Tournament in 1992 and finishing runner up in 1993. Coach Padgett played collegiate basketball at the University of Tennessee at Martin and went on to become a graduate assistant coach at Austin Peay State University. Coach Padgett was the former Head Coach at The University of West Alabama, a Gulf South Conference Division II college. She then returned to Clarksville to coach alongside former Lady Gobs Coach Susie Gardner at APSU from 2001-2003 where she helped guide the teams to two OVC Championships and two NCAA tournament appearances.

Rossview Asst. Coach: Duane Padgett

Coach Duane Padgett brings 17 years of high school and collegiate coaching experience. He was the former head coach at The University of Arkansas - Monticello, assistant coach at Mississippi University for Women and assistant at Southern Mississippi where he helped the Lady Eagles to two Conference USA Championships and two NCAA tournaments. Prior to college coaching, Coach Padgett was the former high school coach at Forrest High School and Cruger - Tchula Academy in Mississippi. Currently, coach Padgett is a physical education teacher at Rossview Middle School.

Rossview Asst. Coach: Amy Josephson

Coach Amy Josephson completed her third season with the Lady Hawks. Coach Amy was a four-year collegiate student athlete for the Lady Gobs softball and track programs. She played high school basketball for Farragut High in Knoxville, TN. She is at this time working toward her Masters Degree in Health and Human Performance at APSU. Coach Josephson guided the Junior Varsity team to a 9-4 school record this season.
